

The image shows the exterior of a two-story brick building. The brickwork is a mix of light and dark tones. Several windows with orange frames are visible on both floors. On the ground floor, there is a glass entrance door with an orange frame, a large yellow double door, and a grey mailbox unit. The word 'WULK' is mounted in orange letters above the glass door. To the left of the entrance, there are some utility boxes and a small green mailbox. A bicycle is parked on the right side of the image. The foreground is a paved area with some wooden posts.
